PKG

PRISCILLA KING GRAY
PUBLIC SERVICE CENTER

Explore. Learn. Change. Create. Build. Innovate. Experience. Discover. Serve.

Tackle complex, real-world challenges working alongside expert community practitioners. Use your skills to advance the social and environmental issues that matter most to you and to communities.

The PKG Center can help you build a better world while you're at MIT, with public service programs and projects in Greater Boston, across the US, and around the world. Check out our programs below, and chat with our friendly PKG staff during office hours!All PKG Center programs are free or cost-neutral for students.

PKG Programs	FALL	IAP	SPRING	SUMMER	U.S.	ABROAD	DEADLIN
Active Community Engagement (ACE) Kick off your MIT education with a social impact-focused introduction to Greater Boston. Spend your days connecting with local community agencies and your evenings making friends with fellow first-years.	0	0	0	•	•	0	Summer
Community-Informed Field Immersion (CIFI) ($) Join a team of MIT interns working full-time on site with community partners like COPE in Gallup, NM, to address issues like healthcare and food access in the Dine community of the Navajo Nation.	•	0	0	•	•	0	Sept.,- May
Get Good Stuff Done Prepare yourself for success in your service and social change work with this series of practical, skills-based workshops. Participating MIT partners include: MISTI, D-Lab, Sandbox, SAO, Legatum, Trust Center, and more!	•	0	•	0	•	0	N/A
IDEAS ($) Recruit or join a team from anywhere to bring a context-relevant innovation to life in collaboration with stakeholders! Secure grants up to $20K. Hone your idea with targeted feedback, workshops, and coaching from experts.	•	•	•	0	•	•	IAP
Social Impact Internships and Employment ($) Explore modes of social change, apply your studies to "real-world" challenges, and strengthen your network and resume through jobs and paid internships while working at a nonprofit or government agency.	•	•	•	•	•	0	Rolling

PKG Connect Travel to Navajo Nation with a cohort of fellow MIT students and spend the week meeting with community members and nonprofit organizations to learn about important social and technical issues on the Reservation.	0	0	0	•	•	0	May
PKG Fellowships ($) Spend IAP or summer working virtually with social change agencies around the world. Funding can support a project you've developed, communityengaged research, non-profit or public sector internships, and more.	0	•	0	•	•	•	October, March
PKG IAP: Health ($) Get real-world experience in the health sector working full-time with organizations like BMC's Autism Program. Support staff research, create resources for patients, and participate in staff meetings and grand rounds.	0	•	0	0	•	0	October
PKG Spring Break Join a small team of MIT students to explore important social and environmental issues like climate change and health. Learn from expert professionals, take fun field trips, and get hands-on experience.	0	0	•	0	•	0	February
Academic Courses Sign up for SP.250: Transforming Good Intentions into Good Outcomes, a top-ranked fall discovery course, or SP.256: Informed Philanthropy in Theory and Action, a Spring discovery course where you play an active role in granting philanthropic funds to local organizations.	•	0	•	0	•	0	Fall and Spring

Visit our website at www.pkgcenter.mit.edu to learn more about our programs!

Sign up for the PKG Center newsletter to get our latest updates on program and course offerings: bit.ly/PKGnews